1. Reference asked for Vienna traces on certain persons, and following is our reply: a. Walter JARMIN. We have no traces not already available to Munich. The Vienna telephone and address books confirm JARMIN's address. b. Rudolf JORDAN. No traces. The Vienna address book lists four Rudolf JORDANS and since it also provides occupation, we are listing them in the hope it will be of some slight assistance. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) Beamter - Wien VIII, Haspingerasse 3, Stiege 2</li> <li>2) Chauffeur - Wien III, Apostelgasse 23</li> <li>3) Mechaniker - Wien XXI, Josef Watovstrasse 3</li> <li>4) Rentner - Wien XV, Tossasse 2</li> </ol> c. Wilhelm Oskar LANDIG. The following is quoted from an attachment to MHA-9296, 26 November 1951: "Born 20 December 1909 in Vienna, a German national with Austrian citizenship. He is married and has two children. LANDIG lives at Favoritenstrasse 56/8, Vienna IV. He is 5'6 1/2" tall, with a long face, brown eyes, and blond hair. Since 1947 he has been the owner of a graphic arts shop on Waehringerstrasse in Vienna. "LANDIG attended Volksschule, Untergymnasium, and Kunsthochschule in Vienna. In 1940 he joined the SD Leitabschnitt Wien and was later assigned to the staff of the RFSS (Reichsfuehrer SS), although he remained in Vienna instead of being transferred to Berlin. His last grade was that of Oberscharfuehrer. From February 1942 until the summer of 1944 he was with the German Army in Yugoslavia. Among

other units he served with the 42nd Jager Division. After the war he spent two years in Wolfberg as a PW of the English."

The Vienna telephone and address books confirm his address as it appears in Reference.

d. Edwin Josef Victor STUBER. No Station traces.

e. Dr. Roland TIBBEL. Our only trace, a Registry card, refers to RAVA-31557, 9 October 1962, which says Dr. Roland TIBBEL, Austrian citizen, medical doctor residing at Vienna VIII, Josefstadtstrasse 2, is in contact with Dr. H. HASCHKE (phonetic) who is allegedly a member of the Egyptian IS. To this card has been added the following Station comment: "Subject of UPHILL trace request (WHI-6116, 18 May 63). Above info (referring to data appearing on our Registry card) cabled to WHI 20 May 63 with comment, NOT PASSABLE UPHILL."

2. The foregoing names were not traced through Liaison, and unless you specifically request that they be, we plan no further action.
